Course Description:

This 4.5-day training is participatory and experience-based. It focuses on the skills that instructors need to facilitate culturally specific HIV/AIDS community sessions with African American audiences. The course combines task group exercises, group discussion and video demonstrations. Instructors learn to use their own experiences to help them facilitate interactive activities with community groups.

Topics to be discussed are:

- Skills-building activities related to HIV prevention behavior in a factually accurate, nonjudgmental and culturally sensitive manner.
- Identify and define the factors that influence people to adopt and maintain prevention behavior, particularly within cultural context.
- Encourage people to respond in informed ways to the risk of HIV infection as well as to people who have HIV.

Prerequisites:

- HIV, STD, and S.C. Law or an equivalent HIV Facts based course,
